With your small group, pick a book to read and then discuss the following questions:

Name of Book:

What feelings/emotions are discussed in the book?

How would you use this book with infants and toddlers to support emotional literacy?